MEMORANDUM FOR: ALL U.S. GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

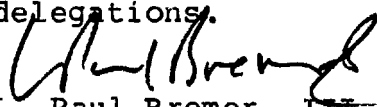

SUBJECT: CHANGE IN PROCEDURES FOR U.S. GOVERNMENT AGENCIES TO SPONSOR VISITS OF PRC DELEGATIONS

The following procedures supercede earlier provisions issued on July 1, 1980 for issuance of visas to PRC delegations sponsored by U.S. Government Agencies.

1. The name and telephone number of the contact person in the U.S., port of entry of group and the date of arrival must be transmitted to the U.S. Embassy as part of the official invitation.
2. Complete itinerary must be sent to the Department of State, Office of Chinese Affairs (EA/C) Rm 4318 Attn: Delegation Control Officer, before scheduled departure of all delegations.

These procedures will enable our Embassy and Consulates General in China to issue visas (when required waivers are received) without waiting for complete itineraries from sponsoring agencies as was previously required.

This memo should be made available to all members of your organization hosting Chinese delegations.
